ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Gurur Brahmaa Gurur Vishnu,
Gurur Devo Maheshwarah,
Guru Saakshaata Parabrahma,
Tasmai Shri Guruve Namah.”

Guru means a person who clears the darkness and shows the way towards the light. Because of this reason, a Guru is considered as a supreme to all. And without him there is no realisation of God. Hence, the Guru is very important in our life. Therefore, I express my deepest sense of gratitude to all my Gurus who have all been the guiding lights illuminating my path in life.

I express my sincere gratitude and deep sense of indebtedness to my Research Guide, Dr. Ujwala Bendale, for providing me this opportunity to work on the thesis of “Critical Analysis of Social and Ethical Issues in Legalising Surrogacy in India” and for her valuable guidance, enthusiastic encouragement, motivation, patience and constant support from the onset of my research work. I have no words to express my respectful gratitude to her. Despite her busy schedule, she always spared her valuable time and provided all the necessary inputs required for completing the thesis.

I would like to express my sincere admiration and gratitude to Prof. Dr. Mukund Sarda, Principal & Dean, Faculty of Law, New Law College, for his timely assistance in shaping of the present thesis. His words of wisdom and encouragement have been a source of strength at the time of practical difficulties during the research.

I extend my gratitude to Dr. Sunita Adhav, Principal, Modern Law College, Pune for giving the valuable support and encouragement to complete this thesis.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Dr. D. K. Bhosale, Founder Secretary, Subhadra Education Society, Pune for providing precious support and motivation for the completion of this research work.

I deeply indebted to my mother, Mrs. Vimal Dashrath Jagtap for giving moral support, encouragement and becoming a pillar of my strength throughout this research work journey.

I am grateful to my colleague Adv. Dev Dhamale for his unfailing encouragement for completion of this research work. I must acknowledge the support of my friend Miss. Anita Phadke for giving a contribution towards completion of this work.

I take this opportunity my sincere gratitude to all those people without whose support and guidance the completion of this project would not be possible.

Finally, I am grateful to the BHARATI VIDYAPEETH, New Law College Library and for extending me library facilities.
